Website Terms of Use

Jacob Hall, M.D., Inc.

Effective October 24, 2026

These terms govern your use of jacobhallmd.com and our online intake form. By using them, you agree to these terms. They do not govern medical care you receive from us, which is covered by the consent forms and policies you receive when you become a patient.

Information, not medical advice

Content on this website is general information about our practice and about Alzheimer's evaluation and treatment. It is not medical advice, is not a substitute for care from your own clinicians, and may not apply to your situation.

No physician-patient relationship until you are seen

Browsing the website, emailing us, or submitting the intake form does not create a physician-patient relationship. That relationship begins only when we have agreed to evaluate you and your first visit takes place. Submitting the intake form does not guarantee an appointment; we may decline when a visit isn't the right next step.

Not for emergencies

The website, intake form, and email are not monitored for urgent concerns. If you think you or someone you care for is having a medical emergency, call 911.

California only

Our services are available only to people who are physically located in California at the time of each visit.

Information you submit

You agree that information you submit is accurate to the best of your knowledge. If you complete the intake form on someone else's behalf, or give us a care partner's contact information, you confirm that you have their permission to do so.

Fees and coverage

Fee and coverage information on this website is a general description. Your actual charges are governed by our fee schedule, your Good Faith Estimate where one applies, and the financial terms you agree to as a patient. Coverage decisions for testing and medication are made by your health plan, not by us.

Third-party services and links

Our intake form is operated by Jotform, and the website links to federal government websites. We are not responsible for the content or practices of websites we don't operate.

Our content

The website's text, design, and logo belong to Jacob Hall, M.D., Inc. You may view and print them for personal, non-commercial use.

The website is provided "as is." To the extent permitted by law, we make no warranties about its availability, accuracy, or completeness.

Limitation of liability

To the extent permitted by law, Jacob Hall, M.D., Inc. is not liable for damages arising from your use of, or inability to use, the website. This section concerns use of the website only and does not limit any rights you have regarding medical care.

Governing law

These terms are governed by the laws of the State of California.

Changes to these terms

We may update these terms by posting a revised version on this page with a new effective date.
